Anti-Racing Petitions Are Filed

LITTLE ROCK (U-USA) — Petitions designed to outlaw pari-mutuel betting in Arkansas were filed today with the secretary of state.
Leaders of the Arkansas Anti-Racing Council brought the petitions to the capital in a large card-board box.
Tim E. Digby of Little Rock, state chairman of the council, said the petitions contain "right at 40,000 signatures."
The petitions call for a constitutional amendment against pari-mutuel betting. It would prohibit the measure would kill any horse or dog racing in the state.
Sponsors of a conflicting constitutional proposal which would keep horse racing at Hot Springs, Ark., said they would file their petitions later in the day.
Muel S. Cox, manager of the Hot Springs Race and Casino, which circulated petitions for the Hot Springs Race and Casino, said at the resort city that about 55,000 signatures had been obtained for the pro-racing measure.

Johnson Makes Segregation Main Issue

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the second in a series of stories on candidates for the Democratic nomination for governor.)

By TOM BYGARD

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The first in the hand-shaking circuit in the campaign for governor was Jim Johnson, a former state senator and staunch segregationist.

Just when Johnson began campaigning is a matter for conjecture.

He struck out by car last year, determined to carry the white supremacist message to every city and hamlet in Arkansas.

It was not a campaign for governor or any other public office, he said, but just the job of the director of the White Citizens Council of Arkansas.

He has been at it ever since, asking speeches, shaking hands and uttering platitudes that there is a legal way around the U. S. Supreme Court's integration ruling.

After April 30, when a "draft Johnson" movement at a segregationist rally got him officially into the race, the job of candidate and the job of segregation were merged.

Today, while other candidates are getting well for the first time, Johnson has been in the swim for 10 months.

Johnson, whipped in a race for attorney general two years ago, is the segregation issue.

He has described Gov. Orval Faubus' stand on segregation as halfway and personality is sponsoring measures aimed at keeping it races separated in Arkansas public schools.

He also is advocating a boost in the state old age pension and the separation of the state hospital for Nervous Diseases from dole.

A Crossett attorney, Johnson formed the White Citizens Council of Arkansas last year. In the name of the council he asked Faubus to call a special session of the Legislature to deal with

It's a Great Time to Buy a Buick

(And at the Best Buy Yet!)

What's in it for you — if you step out and buy yourself a 1956 Buick right now? Well, first of all — the time is right.

Right now, your present car is at its peak worth. And, with the whole summer and almost half of '56 still ahead of you, you'll get more enjoyment out of a spirited new Buick this year — if you buy now.

Second, there's the matter of how much more automobile your money buys in the best Buick yet.

We tell you flatly that nowhere but in a '56 Buick can you get so much bounty for so little booty.

For example, take the beautiful big '56 Buick SPECIAL pictured here. It's one big reason why Buick now ranks in the top three of America's best-selling cars. Yet, you'll find it priced right close to the well-known smaller cars.

That sure makes Buick a whale of a lot of car for the money. And look: Nowhere but in a '56 Buick can you get the absolute smoothness and the electrifying performance of Buick's terrific new Variable Pitch Dynaflow.*

Nowhere else can you get the obedient responsiveness of Buick's big and mighty new 322-cubic-inch V8 engine. Or Buick's matchless new handling ease and over-level ride buoyancy — or Buick's bold new sweep-ahead styling, and solidity of structure, and stretch-out roominess. Add it all up and the answer comes out the same, any way you figure it: Now's the time to buy your 1956 Buick.

Will you come in — before another sun sets — and get set with your best buy yet?

*Now Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflow is the only Dynaflow Buick builds today. It's standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century — optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

AIR-CONDITIONING at a COOL NEW LOW PRICE is available, delivered, on all Buicks. Get a Buick with genuine FRIGIDAIRE CONDITIONING.

It's a Great Time to Buy a Buick

(And at the Best Buy Yet!)

What's in it for you — if you step out and buy yourself a 1956 Buick right now? Well, first of all — the time is right.

Right now, your present car is at its peak worth. And, with the whole summer and almost half of '56 still ahead of you, you'll get more enjoyment out of a spirited new Buick this year — if you buy now.

Second, there's the matter of how much more automobile your money buys in the best Buick yet.

We tell you flatly that nowhere but in a '56 Buick can you get so much bounty for so little booty.

For example, take the beautiful big '56 Buick SPECIAL pictured here. It's one big reason why Buick now ranks in the top three of America's best-selling cars. Yet, you'll find it priced right close to the well-known smaller cars.

That sure makes Buick a whale of a lot of car for the money. And look: Nowhere but in a '56 Buick can you get the absolute smoothness and the electrifying performance of Buick's terrific new Variable Pitch Dynaflow.*

Nowhere else can you get the obedient responsiveness of Buick's big and mighty new 322-cubic-inch V8 engine. Or Buick's matchless new handling ease and over-level ride buoyancy — or Buick's bold new sweep-ahead styling, and solidity of structure, and stretch-out roominess. Add it all up and the answer comes out the same, any way you figure it: Now's the time to buy your 1956 Buick.

Will you come in — before another sun sets — and get set with your best buy yet?

*Now Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflow is the only Dynaflow Buick builds today. It's standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century — optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

It's a Great Time to Buy a Buick

(And at the Best Buy Yet!)

What's in it for you — if you step out and buy yourself a 1956 Buick right now? Well, first of all — the time is right.

Right now, your present car is at its peak worth. And, with the whole summer and almost half of '56 still ahead of you, you'll get more enjoyment out of a spirited new Buick this year — if you buy now.

Second, there's the matter of how much more automobile your money buys in the best Buick yet.

We tell you flatly that nowhere but in a '56 Buick can you get so much bounty for so little booty.

For example, take the beautiful big '56 Buick SPECIAL pictured here. It's one big reason why Buick now ranks in the top three of America's best-selling cars. Yet, you'll find it priced right close to the well-known smaller cars.

That sure makes Buick a whale of a lot of car for the money. And look: Nowhere but in a '56 Buick can you get the absolute smoothness and the electrifying performance of Buick's terrific new Variable Pitch Dynaflow.*

Nowhere else can you get the obedient responsiveness of Buick's big and mighty new 322-cubic-inch V8 engine. Or Buick's matchless new handling ease and over-level ride buoyancy — or Buick's bold new sweep-ahead styling, and solidity of structure, and stretch-out roominess.

Add it all up and the answer comes out the same, any way you figure it: Now's the time to buy your 1956 Buick.

Will you come in — before another sun sets — and get set with your best buy yet?

*Now Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflow is the only Dynaflow Buick builds today. It's standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century — optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

Johnson Makes Segregation Main Issue

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the second in a series of stories on candidates for the Democratic nomination for governor.)

By TOM BYGAR

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The first an to hit the hand-shaking circuit in the campaign for governor was Jim Johnson, a former state senator and staunch segregationist.

Just when Johnson began campaigning is a matter for conjecture. He struck out by car last year, determined to carry the white supremacist message to every city and hamlet in Arkansas.

It was not a campaign for governor or any other public office, he said, but just the job of the director of the White Citizens Council of Arkansas.

He has been at it ever since, asking speeches, shaking hands and uttering platitudes that there is a legal way around the U. S. Supreme Court's integration ruling.

After April 30, when a "draft Johnson" movement at a segregationist rally got him officially into the race, the job of candidate and the job of segregation were merged.

Today, while other candidates are getting well for the first time, Johnson has been in the swim for 10 months.

Johnson, whipped in a race for attorney general two years ago, is the segregation issue.

He has described Gov. Orval Faubus' stand on segregation as halfway and personality is sponsoring measures aimed at keeping it races separated in Arkansas public schools.

He also is advocating a boost in the state old age pension and the separation of the state hospital for Nervous Diseases from dole.

A Crossett attorney, Johnson formed the White Citizens Council of Arkansas last year. In the name of the council he asked Faubus to call a special session of the Legislature to deal with segregation problems and asked the S. S. Senate to investigate the Supreme Court for possible ties with Russia.

The president, Mrs. Mack Roberts, presided. The minutes were read by the secretary, Mrs. Marvin Wicker, and roll call was answered with "Where We Would Like to Spend Our Ideal Vacation."

Johnson said without hesitation six months ago that somebody would run for governor on a strong segregation platform. He said segregationists did not want "Faubus' sides." That was when Faubus held to a stand-off policy and Johnson and his backers apparently did not change their mind about Faubus when the governor switched sides and said he would try to preserve segregation.

Still, however, Johnson claimed he was not a candidate. A move to draft Johnson came into the open at a giant segregation rally at Little Rock.

At first Johnson answered the draft movement with a plea that he lacked the money for a gubernatorial campaign. Herbert Brewer, leader of the segregationist fight at Hoxie, asked the audience to throw money into orchestra pit of the auditorium in Fort Smith.

Several thousand segregationists milled forward, tossing currency, checks and coins into the pit. Backers of Johnson picked up the money and piled it on a table.

When the count was over, Johnson had enough money to pay his filing fee and said he would run.

9:37 P.M.

A narrow alley runs beside the Hibernia Hotel from the street in front to the stone breakwater at the foot of the hill. The alley is used only by delivery and garbage trucks which must back up to the hotel and the brick apartment house on the other side of the alley.

It was 11:30 p.m. when there was a full moon, there was black darkness at the bottom of the narrow alley. The light from the moon was dim. On this night there was only a sickle moon in the sky.

A girl, a girl stumpled at the edge of the moonlight. She emerged suddenly from the blackness of the alley onto the sidewalk. She was running. She was down on both hands and one knee. She threw a terrified glance back over her shoulder. She knew she could see nothing, but she distinctly heard the running footsteps.

Absolute terror mingled with hysterical despair hit her features in a fit of horror. She was on her feet instantly, running wildly down the alley. She was in the brightly lighted hotel entrance, like any hunted thing instinctively seeking safety.

He said his office would not extend its staff but that "we believe we can do a better job now support the federal aid than ever before, and we intend to capitalize on this . . . to certainly bring it to the attention of the public and at least we know now who our friends are," McCaskill said.
